

1 MR. MARTINEAU: My offhand recollection is
2 that it may help it. I can't think of all the possibilities
3 right now whether there may be a political organization
4 which is nonpartisan that you wouldn't want the judge to 5 participate in.

6 DR. BARD: May I respond to that for a moment?
7 A while ago you included the League of Women Voters as 8 a politically oriented organization, but it is certainly 9 nonpartisan, so there is a delineation there that is 10 important.

11 MR. MARTINEAU: It is nonpartisan, but they 12 do support many, many legislative measures which I think 13 it would be improper for a judge to participate in. I
14 don't think the nonpartisan would make it all right.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Professor Burdette?

16 DR. BURDETTE: The most I would take out would 17 be, or make any contribution. The reason for that is, I 18 think that is an attack upon the real service of the 19 party system. Nobody feels more strongly than I as a 20 University professor that I should not take an open part 21 in politics, but I certainly think that I, as a citizen,
